What Constitutes a Union Man?

In response to a question as to the weight to be given to the oath of allegiance as a proof of loyalty, the Solicitor of the War Department has declared that "taking 'oaths of loyalty' is not 'giving conclusive proof of loyalty.'" [See DAILY OREGONIAN of May 27th for letter.] Now if the oath is not deemed sufficient evidence of a man's loyalty to his Government, without reference to his antecedent acts, sympathies and interests, for what shall a man's simple assertion pass, while divested of the moral and legal responsibility attaching to an oath, at a time when the country is in danger from secret and open traitors, and when every man who is not for, must of necessity be against its unity? This is a matter of too grave import to pass over hastily, and we appeal to every man who desires in his heart to be true to his GOD, his country, and to himself, to dissect the words and scan the motives of any one who claims to be a Union candidate on Monday next. There are two tickets in the field, both headed "Union," the candidates upon them professing to be sound upon the Union question.

At a mass meeting of the citizens of Willamette Precinct, on Monday last, several of the candidates from either side were present and spoke. Among others, Mr Risley, "Independent Union candidate" for the Legislature of Oregon, from Multnomah county. At the conclusion of this gentleman's address, he was asked by Mr John Powell how he should cast his vote for Representative to Congress on Monday next. He replied "for J. K. Kelly, if I live." Now, if Mr Risley, as a Union man, publicly announces his intention of supporting Col Kelly for Congress, it behooves the Union voters at whose hands Mr. Risley requires an election to criticise the sentiments and language used in support of his Congressional candidate, who was nominated—as he is himself—in opposition to the Union candidate of the people of Oregon in Convention assembled. As we said before, there are but two sides to the issue—for and against the Union. Each side has its advocates—Messrs Henderson, Williams, Gibbs and others advocating the cause of Union, and Messrs Kelly, Lane and others on the side of "Democracy." That it may be clearly understood which of the two boats Union men must be careful to row in, we quote from the State Journal a synopsis of the speech made by Gen. Lane, at Eugene, on the 21 inst., when he followed Gov. Gibbs in debate:

> He declared that secession is a constitutional right; that we never had a general government; that the States were always sovereign and the Federal authority subordinate, having power to act only in obedience to the will of the State, the latter reserving the right to secede whenever they pleased, and that "Old Joe Story," who denied this right, "never had a Democratic idea in his head in his life." He said that before a gun was fired "the Old Joker [Lincoln] and his black Republican devils had resolved to destroy the South." Lincoln was a traitor—elected on a treasonable platform, a perjurer—had sworn to support the Constitution and then violated it continually. Not only had the President perjured himself, but his supporters knew he would when they elected him, and voted for him for that very reason, because they wanted to destroy the country. Lincoln had made the war, destroyed the country, perjured himself, committed treason, was a tyrant and a usurper, making the most cruel, the most infernal war of plunder and extermination—a regular raid for the purpose of theft and murder—on an innocent people, simply because they had exercised their Constitutional right of secession. The Northern fanatics had violated the Constitution in everything—the South could not possibly live with such a pack of hypocrites any longer—the Southern States had resumed the power which had been delegated to the Federal Government, and in attempting to force them back into the Union Lincoln and his supporters were waging a war the most savage and unjustifiable of any war ever waged on "God's earth." They were waging this war to destroy the nation and establish a monarchy, to kill all the people of the South and give their homes to niggers to gratify an ungovernable thirst for blood; but the time will soon come when these destroyers would call upon the mountains to fall on them and hide them from the wrath of Democrats. Tax collectors were so many thieves sent out by the abolitionists to steal from Democrats the last dime they could raise on "God's earth." Abolitionists were not Christians. When Christianity came into the world slavery existed in its most appalling form, forty million white persons were the slaves of men who had the right to take even their lives, and Christianity supported and encouraged that kind of slavery, and those who pretended to object to slavery on religious grounds were vile hypocrites. Slavery was entirely a matter of convenience and self interest. In densely populated countries, where the rich could hire their laborers cheaper than they could raise them up from the cradle, they would naturally do so; but where it was cheaper to reduce the the laboring class to slavery, the rich had always done it—it was the natural order of things, and there was nothing wrong about it in a religious point of view.

The above is reported as the gist of the speech of one of the ablest advocates of the only candidate and only party against Oregon's Union nominee. Can any true lover of his Country endorse these sentiments and vote the Copperhead ticket? We have no language in which to express an opinion of that speech, but the Provost Marshal should have, and will doubtless find an early opportunity for expressing it. Any man who votes against Mr. Henderson for Congress votes against the perpetuity of our National Union.

THE RESULTS OF DIVISION.—Among the results of a division of the Union vote in this county or State we are unable to anticipate even one from which advantage will inure to us. That the prospects of the rebellion are such to-day as to furnish little occasion for rejoicing even to its Oregon friends, is beyond question; that its days are numbered, is confidently believed by every loyal man without regard to past party predilections. If, then, the rebellion is on the point of being quelled, and the question of practical loyalty or disloyalty is so near its solution, of what avail is it for those who are at heart sound in their sympathies for the Union, to seek—at this late day—a division of the Union vote, jeopardizing their political record as citizens, and dimming with an indelible blot the escutcheon of their State, when it should be the highest personal aim of every man to place her foremost among the loyal band. If for old party names—or more foolishly wicked still, in the vain hope of party spoils—the regular Union party should be defeated, or even become the victors by a bare majority, it is unreasonable to presume that Oregon's present aspirations would be satisfied at the hands of an Administration she contemned or gave but a beggarly support. Let our people remember these things. We have many wants which the National Administration only can gratify, but which gratification will never extend to the enemies of our national honor.

PORT MADISON SAW MILLS DESTROYED BY FIRE.—Loss $200,000.—On Sunday, May 22, at half past 2 A. M., the extensive saw mills of George A. Meigs, Esq., at Port Madison, W. T., were discovered by a watchman to be on fire, and in spite of every effort at prevention, the two mills, together with the foundry and machine shop were soon a mass of smoldering ruins. It was with the utmost difficulty that the store houses, cook house, lumber piles and dwellings of the workmen were saved. There were two vessels loading at the time, but fortunately they were to windward of the mills, and escaped destruction. Mr. Meigs is loser, by this catastrophe, to the extent of $200,000, but with his characteristic energy, has already commenced the erection of new buildings upon the site of the old mills. He will soon be ready to deliver lumber again, for he is one of those who "never say die."

GRAND UNION RALLY THIS EVENING.—The Union citizens of Portland will meet at the Willamette Theatre this evening, to hear addresses upon the subject of sustaining the regular Union ticket on next Monday at the polls. It is desired and expected that there should be a large attendance. Hon. J. H. Mitchell and other eloquent speakers will be heard from. Let it be a grand rally.

GETTING SORE.—The Copperheads of the interior are already feeling sore at the prospect of defeat. The more the Government is misrepresented and the South justified and lauded in her treason by the Democratic orators, the more telling are the efforts of the Union champions, until those Democrats who have hitherto been misguided, are coming out from among their late confreres, and enrolling their names among the loyal hosts of Oregon.

DEMOCRACY.—The American Flag, of San Francisco, thus flaunts over the fallen party:

> It was a glorious name—"Democracy!" The pleasant sound rose to the crest of the mountain, sank to the depths of the valley, and made music in the cottages of the people. It rung over the prostrate nationality of Ireland, echoed in the deep defiles of indomitable Hungary, was heard among the lost glories of unyielding Poland. Christian, Jew, Buddhist and Moslem, all began to stretch their supplicating hands toward the Ark of Nations. But, alas! Democracy has proved an imposter and traitor. Its great men have died and escaped the times of its humiliation and infamy. When an insulted country called for her braver sons, Democracy was on the sick list. It hid from the recruiter, and got down on its trembling knees, holding out "the olive branch of peace," to a haughty enemy who voided his spittle in the face of the coward. The very tatterdemalion rebels of the South, contending for victory, with the souls of demons and the arms of giants, spat upon and spurned the pusillanimous peace Democracy of the North, and held their noses in the presence of hissing copperheads. And when it died in disgrace and was cast down to the nether hells, there was not found a coward's soul sufficiently debased to become its companion in damnation.

We have received for publication the following response of H. G. Struve, Esq., to a letter informing him of his nomination by the Union party at Vancouver. It breathes a spirit which it would be better for a number of other honest but misguided Democrats to imbibe.

> VANCOUVER, W. T., May 27, 1864
> SIR: Your note of this date, informing me that the Union Central Committee, believing me to be a Union man, have nominated me as the candidate of the Union party for the office of Prosecuting Attorney of the 2d Judicial District, has been received.
> I accept the nomination thus tendered to me under circumstances gratifying to myself, and assure you that I am what you believe me to be—an "unconditional Union man." I left the Democratic organization some months since, believing the advocacy of its principles to be dangerous to the perpetuity of the Government and destructive of the present efforts of the Administration to utterly exterminate the rebellion. I shall hereafter earnestly advocate the principles of the Union party, and vote to place into power and position only such men as are loyal to their country and opposed to the rebellion and its sympathizers.
> Hoping that this explanation of my position will suffice, I remain, Respectfully, &c.,
> H. G. STRUVE.
> J. M. FLETCHER,
> Chairman Union Central Committee.

Many people have just enough conscience to keep them tolerably miserable all their lives.

LATER FROM THE EAST.

SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE DAILY OREGONIAN

Dates to May 30.

WASHINGTON, May 2[illegible]—Midnight.—A dispatch from the headquarters of the Army of the Potomac at Mangohick Church, 10 miles from Hanovertown, dated at 5 o'clock P. M., on the 27th, states that our army had withdrawn to the north side of North Anna, the 26th, and moved toward Hanovertown, the place designated for crossing the Pamunkey.

On Friday morning Sheridan, with the 1st and 2d divisions of cavalry, took possession of Hanover Ferry and Hanovertown. The 1st division of the 6th corps arrived 10 o'clock A. M. and took hold the place, with a sufficient force of cavalry, infantry and artillery to resist any attack likely to be made upon it. The remainder of the troops are pressing forward with vigor.

Later dispatches say that everything was progressing finely. The weather was clear and cool and the troops were coming up rapidly and in good spirits, and the army will be beyond Pamunkey very soon.

Breckinridge is at Hanover Court House with a force variously reported at from [illegible] 000 to 10,000.

Wickham's and Lomax's brigades of cavalry are also there.

The dispatches further state that after the seizure of Hanover Ferry on Friday afternoon Gen. [illegible] captured 77 cavalry including six officers; that the rebel cavalry are exceedingly demoralized, and flee before our troops on every occasion.

Dispatches received from Sherman, dated near Dallas, 6 o'clock on the 28th, reports that the enemy discovered his move to turn Allatoona, and marched out to meet our forces at Dallas. Our columns met the enemy about one mile east of Pumpkinvine creek, and we pushed them back about three miles to a point where the roads fork to Atlanta and Marietta.

Here Johnston has chosen a strong line, and made hasty, but strong parapets of timber and earth. Sherman's right is at Dallas, and the center about three miles north. The country is densely wooded and broken, and there are no roads of any consequence. We have had many sharp encounters but nothing decisive.

(Signed) STANTON.

NEW YORK, May 30.—The Times special dispatch says:

Sedley's brigade met with a repulse in crossing the North Anna. They had crossed the river and were driving in the rebel skirmishers, when they opened a terrible fire from six guns. The brigade fell back to the cover of a piece of woods, all this during a severe thunderstorm. The rebels charged and drove our men towards the river just as another brigade came up and cut off their advance. 450 of the brigade are killed, wounded and missing.

WASHINGTON, May 29.—Midnight.—Dispatches from Gen. Banks, dated 21st, detail the brilliant, ingenious achievement of Col. Bailey in the construction of a dam across the falls of Red river for the relief of the gunboats.

The army in going from Alexandria to Mississippi had an engagement at Morganzia, and one at Yellow Bayou, in both of which the rebels were beaten.

Banks states that no prisoners, wagons, or other material of the army has been captured by the enemy, except that abandoned by him in an unexpected engagement at Sabine Cross Roads on the 8th. With the exception of the losses sustained there the material of the army is complete.

CAIRO, May 29.—At the crossing of Atchafalaya, the Federal rear guard had a lively artillery duel with the enemy. Our loss, which was the heaviest sustained on the march, was 125 killed and wounded. The rebel loss was 260 killed and wounded, 300 prisoners with two pieces of artillery. To effect the crossing of the Atchafalaya, 20 transports were placed abreast across the river and a bridge of planks laid over the forecastles, over which the army, horses and mules, passed. Half a dozen steamers ferried the men and baggage over. Ten gunboats protected the crossing. The passage was completed on the 12th.

MONTREAL, May 27.—Joshua R. Giddings, American Consul General, dropped dead at 10 o'clock, this evening.

WASHINGTON, May 30.—A dispatch from Grant dated Hanover Town the 20th, states the army has successfully crossed the Pamunkey. We now occupy a front of about three miles south of the river.

Yesterday, the 2d division of our cavalry had an engagement with the enemy south of Hawe's store driving him about a mile upon what appears to be his new line. We will find out all about it to day. Our loss in the cavalry engagement is 350 killed and wounded. Most of the enemy's dead and a number of wounded are in our hands.

Another official dispatch dated 2 o'clock the 20th, details the movement of several corps then in process, but up to that time, there had been no general engagement.

A telegram from Sherman, dated Dallas the 29th, reports that on the 28th an engagement occurred between the enemy and McPherson's corps. The enemy were driven back. Loss 2,500 killed, wounded, and left on our hands, and about 300 prisoners. Our loss not over 300.

STANTON.

NEW YORK, May 30.—A dispatch from Wheeling, states that Gen Hunter reduced the army to light marching order and moved it from Cedar Creek. He has issued orders for the army to live upon the country through which they pass.

CLEVELAND, May 30.—From present appearances the Radical Convention to-morrow will be large. A large number of Missourians in attendance. Illinois, Iowa, Arkansas, Pennsylvania, also a large representation from Michigan, Wisconsin, New York, Kansas and New Jersey; Massachusetts is represented but not largely.

The Germans have delegations from 12 States, some of whom held informal meetings yesterday. A free interchange of views took place and resolutions in favor of Fremont and against Lincoln were passed. Also, against the suppression of the press, the trial by jury and protesting against any infringement of this right, as destructive of human liberty, favoring an amendment to the Constitution prohibiting slavery and endorsing the Monroe doctrine, the one term principle as absolutely necessary to check corruption.

Apparently the delegation from New York of war democrats are in favor of the nomination of Grant, with Fremont for Vice President, but none other.

Indications are that Grant will be withdrawn and Fremont nominated without much opposition.

Several names are mentioned to-night as probable candidates for Vice President. Among them the following names appear: Gen Cochrane, Gratz Brown, Gen. Logan, Gov Andrews and Gen Rosecrans. Cochrane is the strongest.

The platform will be as indicated in the resolutions of the German meeting yesterday.

Controller Robinson, of New York, writes a strong letter in favor of Grant.

Parker Pillsbury brings a letter from Wendell Phillips, complaining that the Administration is a failure, because it has weighed treasure, blood and civil liberty against slavery, and up to the present time has decided to exhaust them all before it uses freedom heartily as a means of battle. He contends the only plan of reconstruction within 20 years, is to admit the blacks to citizenship. He urges the nomination of Fremont or Butler, the former being his first choice.

NEW YORK, May 30.—The City of Baltimore from Liverpool 18th, and Queenstown 19th, has arrived.

The Conference held a session of three hours on the 17th, and all members were present.

The Daily News says they can hardly be said to have advanced a single step towards settling the dispute.

No common basis for discussion has yet been agreed upon.

The Germans have repudiated altogether the treaty of the London Conference, as it adjourned till the 28th of May, when more than half the time fixed for truce will have expired.

California News.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 31.—Private Dispatches mention that great fluctuations took place yesterday at New York in gold, which opened at 189½; at noon was quoted 191½. In the afternoon sales were made at 194½, and afterwards fell to 191, with downward tendency.

Legal Tenders, 56¾@57¼.

INSIDE OUT.—Two Parisians recently married, one a beautiful, the other an extremely frightful woman. They were discussing the merits of their wives. Said the one who had espoused the beauty:

"Your wife is so very ugly."

"Ah, yes," replied the other, "if not externally beautiful, she is beautiful within."

"Then," answered the first, "why don't you turn her inside out?"

San Francisco pays $97,300 per annum to school teachers.

OREGON TRACT SOCIETY.—The Oregon Tract Society held its annual business meeting at the vestry of the Presbyterian Church, May 11th, at 3 o'clock P. M.

The report of the Secretary and the Treasurer showed that the operations of the Society, for the past three years, have been chiefly the purchase and sale of books for Sabbath School purposes, together with donations of Tracts for gratuitous distribution.

The Society is free from debt, and it has assets, in books and a building lot at Oregon City, valued in all at $100.

It is proposed to extend our operations, and keep on hand a much larger assortment of books of a Union kind, and of the most choice character and style for Sabbath Schools and for holiday gifts, and general, as well as family reading, at Boston retail prices.

We shall keep on hand a large supply of assorted tracts for general distribution.

Memberships are solicited among the friends of this institution to promote tract distribution.

Any sum with the name constitutes a person an annual member.

[illegible] the Fall we shall be in receipt of new invoices of books and tracts monthly from Boston.

The depository is at Messrs Hurgren & Shindler's, corner of First and Alder streets, Portland.

Thirty six members have been obtained up to May 20th, paying from 25 cts to $2 50 each, amounting to $[illegible].

The following officers were chosen for the ensuing year, or until their successors are elected: Rev. F. [illegible], President; Rev. G. H. Atkinson, Secretary and Treasurer; G. Shindler, Depositary; Executive Committee, Rev. S. Cornelius, Rev. P. S. Caffrey, Rev. Mr. Hyland, D. W. Williams, Esq., Dr. J. G. Glenn.

Attest: G. H. ATKINSON, Sec'y.

Retiring from the Practice of Medicine
A CARD.

DR. L. J. CZAPKAY begs leave to announce to the public, and particularly to his patrons on the Pacific Coast, that he is about to close his business, with the view of retiring for the present from the arduous labors of his profession.

As it is his intention during the ensuing Fall to leave the United States, for the purpose of visiting Europe, he will not receive any new patients after the first day of July, 1864. Those, therefore, who may desire his services will apply within a reasonable time. Dr Czapkay desires to assure those who are now under his care that they will continue to receive all the attention which his obligations prescribe and their cases respectively demand. Those who hold contracts guaranteeing a cure are hereby requested to report to Dr Czapkay before the first day of June, 1864, whether or not they are satisfied that a cure has been effected in their cases respectively. All who do not thus report within the time specified will be regarded and treated as cured.

In taking leave of his patients and the public, Dr. Czapkay desires to express his profound gratitude for the extraordinary patronage bestowed upon him, and the confidence reposed in his professional ability.

During his residence in California Dr. Czapkay has treated successfully upwards of twenty-five thousand patients, which is the best guarantee that his course of treating has been rewarded with a success at once personally gratifying and almost unprecedented in the annals of medicine.

Any physician in good standing who may desire to purchase the interest of Dr. Czapkay in his "Institute" and the good will of his business, may make application on state proposals.

Address Dr. L. J. CZAPKAY, Medical Institute, Sacramento street below Montgomery, opposite Pacific Mail Steamship Company's Office, San Francisco.

PASSENGERS BY THE STEAMSHIP.—The different hotel registers in the city, showed last evening that the passengers of the Oregon were from remote and scattered parts of the country. Quite a number of Hoosiers, Wolverines and Suckers were among the number, and many of them have given up the certainties of a good comfortable living at home, for the uncertainties of a gold chase. The American people as a general thing are prosperous, but not happy, and the anxiety to gain great or pecuniary success, tends to destroy the faculties of enjoying whatever has been gained, and the poetry and sentiment evaporates in the rush and zeal for more. We welcome them, however uncertain the case may be, and wish them abundant success.

RICH DIGGINGS.—Rich diggings were struck in this city yesterday, near the corner of Front street, on Washington. One shovel full of dirt yielded one twenty dollar piece, and as the oro taken has the advantage of being already coined, it must be conceded that the diggings are unequaled. We are informed that both gold and silver have been found, but in this case, like most others, the discoverer has not reaped the advantages of his discovery, but yields to another claim. When it is admitted that gold is found in the streets of Portland, we think it must be we are progressing, and the more so when it is understood it [illegible] taken from excavations for a fine brick block to be erected over the place of deposit.

MOVING IN.—The Oregon Iron Works will soon be carried on in the new and commodious structure, just erected by the Company. The building has been arranged with all the advantages for carrying on the separate departments independently of one another, and is a model of our progress. One thing only would seem to detract from the new place of business, and that is the inaccessibleness in a muddy season. But the proprietors no doubt have forethought, [illegible] see more clearly a way to reach the [illegible] with material in a wet time than did the statesman who completed his saw mill upon the top of a lofty mount, where he should have plenty of wind to run it, before he had once thought how the logs could be furnished for sawing.

TELEGRAPH MAST.—The pile-driver has been engaged [illegible] a pile on the bottom, below the [illegible] to attach the guys of a mast 1[illegible] [illegible] is being raised [illegible] wire across [illegible] connection will be [illegible]

STEREOSCOPIC VIEWS.—We [illegible] indebted to Messrs Bush [illegible] during [illegible] be witnessed [illegible] the accurate views in que[illegible]

FRONT STREET.—Mr. Thomas has contributed his share [illegible] improving Front street, at the junction [illegible] and although but little, shows what [illegible] accomplished by a cooperative [illegible] of the property holders. That part of Front street in wet weather, is decidedly the worst part of the city, and it appears to us would be susceptible of very economical improvement.

QUICK WORK.—At ten o'clock on Saturday morning the sills of the telegraph mast, below this city, were lying in the log boom of Estes & Stimpson's mill, as nature had formed them, and at three o'clock in the afternoon they were delivered for their final resting place, at the foot of the mast, after being made to correspond with the dimensions of the square and compass.

STOCK FOR VICTORIA.—The steamer Express will take a live load of freight to Monticello to day, consisting of about 400 head of sheep, that will proceed to Vancouver Island. The Victoria papers seem rather encouraged with the opposition from Portland to the Cowlitz, as a tendency to induce shipments of stock in that direction.

THE OREGON.—The steamship Oregon has been overhauled, and greatly regenerated, since the last trip, and is about as good as any ocean steamer that now comes into this port. She will leave at 8 o'clock to-morrow evening for Victoria and San Francisco. Messrs. Richards & McCraken are her agents.

HEAVY SEAS.—The fierce winds of yesterday rolled up many a white foaming breaker on the usually smooth surface of the now broad Willamette, driving pleasure sails with fleet-ness from nearly every wharf in the city. With the sun the wind went down and several were becalmed.

FULL FREIGHTS.—The steamer Senator has been heavily loaded with freight from above, for the trips of several days past, the greater portion of which is flour, grain and bacon, for California. The Hunt carries from one hundred to one hundred and seventy five tons of freight daily, to the Cascades.

ATTRACTIVE SALE.—At the Auction House of A. B. Richardson to-day, a very fine lot of goods will be offered for sale, comprising an excellent, high toned piano, an assortment of carpetings, English saddlery, whips, etc. The building is jam full, but Richardson says he must make room for more.

FROM THE COWLITZ RIVER.—The steamer Cowlitz arrived last evening with a large cargo of baled hay and produce, consigned to E. Beebe. The Express also brought a large consignment of wool, butter and corn meal.

TREASURE.—Twenty six thousand dollars arrived from the Dalles yesterday, by Wells, Fargo & Co.'s Express.

But the proprietors no doubt have forethought, and can see more clearly a way to reach their foundry with material in a wet one, than did the statesman who completed his saw mill upon the top of a lofty mount, where he should have plenty of wind to run it, before he had once thought how the logs would be furnished for sawing.

Telegraph Mast.—The pile-driver has been engaged in sinking a pile on the bottom, near the Gas Works, to attach the guys of a mast 175 feet high, which is being raised there for swinging the telegraph wire across the river. The opposite connection will be made from a mast supported by nature's law of guys, in the form of a tall pine, which has been stripped of its branches to a similar altitude. The wire will be suspended to a sufficient height to admit of the tallest masted vessels, equal to this port, passing unmolested.

The Victoria Trade.—We understand that the depressed condition of business on the Fraser, is likely to give our Victoria friends plenty of steamers to ply on the route between their port and ours. The steamer Governor Douglas has been sent to Port Ludlow for the purpose of having her "bottom" Americanized, and soon the Colonel Moody and Union will undergo a similar process to fit them for our waters.

Stereoscopic Views.—We are indebted to Messrs. Buchtel & Cardwell, the eminent photographers on First street, for a stereoscopic view of Front street, in this city, taken during the time of high water in 1862. The view is very accurate, and gives a life-like description of scenes that have actually occurred in the streets of Portland—such as we trust may never be witnessed again, except from the accurate view in question.

Front Street.—Mr. Thomas has contributed his mite toward improving Front street, at the junction of Madison, and although but little, shows what may be accomplished by a co-operative movement of the property holders. That part of Front street in wet weather, is usually the worst part of the city, and it appears to us would be susceptible of very economical improvement.

Quick Work.—At ten o'clock on Saturday morning the sills of the telegraph mast, below the city, were lying in the log boom of Estes & Simpson's mill, as nature had formed them, and at three o'clock in the afternoon they were delivered for their final resting place, at the foot of the mast, after being made to correspond with the dimensions of the square and compass.

Heavy Seas.—The fierce winds of yesterday called up many a white foaming breaker on the usually smooth surface of the now broad Willamette, driving pleasure sails with fastness from nearly every wharf in the city. With the sun the wind went down and several were becalmed.

Full Freights.—The steamer Senator has been heavily loaded with freight from above, for the trips of several days past, the greater portion of which is flour, grain and bacon, for California. The Hunt carries from one hundred to one hundred and seventy-five tons of freight daily, to the Cascades.

From the Cowlitz River.—The steamer Cowlitz arrived last evening with a large cargo of baled hay and produce, consigned to E. Beebe. The Express also brought a large consignment of wool, butter and corn meal.

Treasure.—Twenty-six thousand dollars arrived from the Dalles yesterday, by Wells, Fargo & Co.'s Express.

Arrival of the Oregon.—The steamship Oregon, Francis Connor, Commander, sailed from San Francisco on the 27th May, at five o'clock P. M. Crossed Columbia river bar May 31st, at 6 A. M., and arrived in Portland at 6 30 P. M. same day. She brings 400 tons of freight for Portland, and the following passengers:

T J Cottle, J Hoffman, A S Mall, J A Duggles, T Harris, Miss Nellie Harris, Mrs Ida Vincent, Miss Hettie Vincent, E C Randall, Mrs Roman & dau., Mrs Hoyt & child, Mrs L Fossett & child, Mrs J F Morgan & 2 children, Mrs Klinck & dau., Mrs G Chamberlin & dau., A P Dennison, Edw Webb, J L Starkey, Capt J Friedman, P A Spink & wife, J H Clute & wife, N Brown, L Baum, J Mendez, C J Maulding, J J Winant, J Hippencott, Thomas L Howell, wife & four children, Mrs Williams, L Colin wife & three children, Miss McMillen, Miss Stein, Wm Laferty, J H Jones, P C Appling, Mrs J C Jones, Miss Osborn, (Elliott Reed, Wells, Fargo & Co.'s messenger,) and 72 others.

G. L. MURDOCK, Purser.

[COMMUNICATED.]

Editor Oregonian:

I notice in the advertising columns of your paper that Holbrook, Tracy, Risley and others have been "proposed and nominated by a large number of the prominent Union citizens of Multnomah County." It is here asserted that they were not only "proposed" but "nominated." This must have been attended to in a regular convention or in a mass meeting of the citizens of the county, assembled, after due notice of the time and place for holding said meeting. When did that convention or mass meeting do this important work? Ah! I notice it was done by a "large number of the prominent citizens of Multnomah county." "Prominent" indeed, distinguished above all others. But how distinguished? In wealth, in intelligence or in moral character? How many prominent citizens are there in this county? Let us suppose there are two hundred. When did they meet and "propose" and "nominate?" Did the minority of the "prominent citizens" acquiesce in the decision of the majority? By what means was it ascertained who were the "prominent citizens" in contradistinction to those who were not? It is known that delegates were elected to meet and nominate a ticket. The names of those delegates were published and they met in convention, but no notice of the result of their action was ever made public. Were they the "prominent Union citizens?" It is known that a petition addressed to Holbrook, Tracy and Risley, requesting them to be candidates for the Legislature, was signed by some of the prominent men of a particular locality in Portland. Were they the "prominent Union citizens?" Why didn't these "prominent Union citizens" direct us underlings how to vote at the precinct meetings, when we supposed we were all equal at the ballot box, and thus save us the severe mortification of having all we done in convention with them set aside? Who are they? Give us their names, and let us judge of their prominence.

A VOTER.

Editor Oregonian:

Catarrhal Cough.—This insidious and annoying symptom, so difficult to treat, depends upon a subacute inflammation of the air passages, which is apt to end in chronic ulceration and a form of consumption. The mucous membrane of the air passages is peculiarly susceptible to the healing influences of the PERUVIAN SYRUP, as the testimonials of some of our first citizens show.

Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters.—The operation of this palatable remedy upon the stomach, liver and excretory organs is singularly soothing and conservative. It regulates, recruits and purifies them. Dyspepsia in all its forms yields to its control and invigorating properties, and it is recommended to mothers, enfeebled by the cares and duties of maternity, as the safest and best tonic they can probably use. In all the crisis of female life it will be found eminently useful, and elderly persons will derive much more benefit from it than from ordinary stimulants.—Sold by all Druggists and Dealers everywhere. ap26d1m

Notice.

SEALED PROPOSALS "IN DUPLICATE," will be received at the office of the undersigned until 10 o'clock A. M. on Friday, the 10th day of June, 1864, for the supply of Fresh Beef for the Troops stationed at Fort Vancouver, W. T., for the Fiscal year, commencing on the 1st day of July, 1864, and ending on the 30th day of June, 1865.

"Said Fresh Beef to be of a good and marketable quality, in equal proportion of Fore and Hind quarter meat, (Necks, Shanks, and Kidney Tallow to be excluded,) in such quantities as may be from time to time required, and on such days as shall be designated by the Commanding Officer. The Necks of the Cattle slaughtered for Beef shall be cut off at the "Fourth" Vertebral Joint, and the Breast trimmed down. The Shanks of Fore quarters shall be cut off from "Three" to "Four" inches above the Knee-Joint, and of Hind quarters, from "Six to Eight" inches above the gambrel or Hock-Joint."

Each bid must be accompanied with the names of two responsible sureties, bound for the faithful performance of the contract.

Bidders and their sureties will not only be required to take the Oath of Allegiance to the United States, but will also have to render satisfactory proofs that their conduct has been strictly loyal during this rebellion, as no Bid from any person of "doubtful" Loyalty will be entertained.

The Contract will be subject to the approval of the Department Commander.

Proposals to be addressed to the undersigned and endorsed thus: "Proposals for Supply of Fresh Beef."

Bidders are invited to be present at the opening of the Bids.

UMATILLA AND BOISE.
OUR LINE OF COACHES
in connection with our Passenger Trains,
Changing Horses every twenty miles, are RUNNING REGULARLY between Umatilla and Boise Mines,
Connecting with the O. S. N. Co's Steamers from Celilo!
Passengers arriving on Steamers at Umatilla can reach the Boise Mines in Quicker Time and for less money by from FIFTEEN TO TWENTY-FIVE DOLLARS than by any other route.
WE WILL WAGER $2500 EACH TRIP, for thirty consecutive trips of the Boats, or any number less, that passengers arriving at Umatilla and starting on our line, will arrive at the Boise Mines before those arriving upon the same Boats and going by any other route.
As a forfeit for the wager, we will put Fifteen Thousand Dollars worth of Horses and Mules against the same amount of Horses, Mules, Cattle, Gold or Greenbacks.
For particulars, enquire at our Office at the ORLEANS HOUSE, Umatilla, Oregon.

LIGHTING GAS WITH THE FINGER. — Any person of a highly electrical temperament (?) may astonish a parlor full of company, by brushing his feet briskly along the carpet for a moment, and then applying his finger to a jet of gas. An electric spark is given off, and the gas is instantly lighted by it. If he should touch a heap of powder it would explode. And is there any mystery about the explosion of powder mills, when we know that every man carries with him a spark that may blow up a magazine?

CHEESE. — Professor Johnson says that a pound of cheese is equal, in nutritive value, to two pounds of flesh. The Europeans seem to be better acquainted with this fact than our own people. With us, cheese is regarded as a luxury, while in England it is regarded as one of the substantial articles of food, and it is not uncommon for the workmen there to make a full meal on bread and cheese alone.

Henry Ward Beecher says: "I tell you if a man is come to that point where he is content, he ought to be put in his coffin; for a contented live man is a sham! If a man has come to that state in which he says, 'I do not want to know any more, or do any more,' he is in a state in which he ought to be changed into a mummy. Of all hideous things, mummies are the most hideous; and of all mummies, those are most hideous that are running about the streets and talking."

PERUVIAN SYRUP,
OR PROTECTED
Solution of Protoxide of Iron,
Has been used with Great Success in Curing
DYSPEPSIA,
Affections of the Liver, Dropsy, Neuralgia, Bronchitis and Consumptive Tendencies, Disordered State of the Blood, Female Complaints, Chronic Diarrhœa, Boils, Scurvy, the prostrating effects of Lead or Mercury,

GENERAL DEBILITY,

and all Diseases which require a

Tonic and Alterative Medicine.

THE PROOFS OF ITS EFFICACY are so numerous so well authenticated, and of such peculiar character, that sufferers cannot reasonably hesitate to receive the proffered aid.

The class of diseases for which the Syrup provides a cure, is precisely that which has so often baffled the highest order of medical skill. The facts are tangible, the witnesses accessible, and the safety and efficacy of the syrup incontrovertible.

From well-known Citizens of Boston.

The undersigned having experienced the beneficial effects of the "Peruvian Syrup," do not hesitate to recommend it to the attention of the public.

Rev JOHN PIERPONT, THOMAS C. AMORY,
THOMAS A. DEXTER, PETER HARVEY,
S. H. KENDALL, M D, JAMES C. DUNN,
SAMUEL MAY, Rev. THOS. WHITTEMORE.

Certificate of Dr. Hayes.

It is well known that the medicinal effect of Protoxide of Iron is lost by even a very brief exposure to air, and that to maintain a solution of Protoxide of Iron, without further oxidation, has been deemed impossible.

In the Peruvian Syrup, this desirable point is attained by COMBINATION IN A WAY BEFORE UNKNOWN; and this solution may replace all the proto carbonates, citrates and tartrates of the Materia Medica. A. A. HAYES, M D, IODINE WATER.

IODINE WATER IS THE MOST IMPORTANT DIScovery of modern chemistry, and it is impossible to over-estimate its influence as a remedial agent. Iodine has been considered the most useful article in Materia Medica, and many of the most scientific and practical chemists and physicians have investigated its effects upon the human system. It is to act upon the

HEART,
LIVER, KIDNEYS,
DIGESTIVE ORGANS AND GLANDULAR SYSTEM,

and to have great control over

SCROFULOUS AFFECTIONS.

Notwithstanding the zeal and ability which have been devoted to its investigation, it remained almost useless, until Dr Henry Anders, a physician and chemist of New York, after years of patient labor and experiment, discovered a chemical process which enabled him to dissolve without a solvent. This, considered impossible by the scientific world, is attested by certificates of analysis from Dr. J. R. Chilton of this city, and Prof Booth, U. S. Mint, Philadelphia. The importance of this discovery was so highly appreciated by the Faculty that it was published in the Medical Journals, and its use recommended to practitioners (see "American Medical Monthly," July 6, 1856, page 76.)

PURE IODINE IN PURE WATER.

This valuable medicine is now available to the public for the cure of Scrofula in all its manifold forms, Consumption, Cancer, Heart, Liver and Kidney Diseases, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Nervous Affections, Dyspepsia, Bronchitis, etc.

AS A TONIC

Its operation is evinced by strengthening the digestive organs and increased nutrition of the body is the result of the employment of Iodine. The patient recovers flesh, strength and color; hitherto pale, relaxed and feeble, he bec. a.ts full, strong and florid.

Full directions accompany each bottle.

Sold by all Druggists. Price $1 per bottle. Prepared by Dr H. A. ...s & Co, Physicians and Chemists, New York.

HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED
STOMACH BITTERS.

THE OPERATION OF THIS PALATABLE REMEDY upon the stomach, liver and excretory organs is singularly soothing and conservative. It regulates, recruits and purifies them. Dyspepsia in all its forms yields to its control and invigorating properties.

Invigorate the System.

Vigorous digestion and pure bile produce nutricious blood, and nutritious blood a healthy frame. Does the victim of a dyspeptic stomach and a disordered liver desire to know how the digestion may be improved, the bile and other fluids of the body purified?

Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters

Will accomplish this desirable revolution in the system, regulating the secretions and excretions, giving tone to the animal juices which dissolve the food, strengthen every relaxed nerve, muscle and fibre, and brings the whole machinery of vitality into vigorous and healthful play.

Strengthen the System.

The best means of imparting vigor to the broken-down frame and shattered constitution, which has yet been invented or discovered, is proffered to the feeble of both sexes and all ages in

Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters.

Debility, from whatever cause arising, may be cured; strength, in whatever manner it may have been wasted, may be restored by the use of this powerful and healthy invigorant. For indigestion and all its painful effects, bodily and mental, they are a positive specific.

A word to the Aged.

In the decline of life the loss of vital force consequent upon physical decay can only be safely supplied by some vivifying preparation which recruits the strength and spirits, without entailing the exhaustion which is always the final effect of ordinary stimulants. We tender to the aged

Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters,

As an invigorant and restorative, immediate in its beneficial action and permanent in its effects. It tones the stomach, improves the appetite, and acts like a charm upon the spirits.

For Females,

Thousands of ladies resort to it as a remedy for hysteria, fluttering of the heart, nervous headache, vertigo, general debility, and all peculiar disturbances and derangements to which, as a sex, they are subject. It cheers and enlightens the depressed mental powers, as well as strengthens the body, and its use is never followed by any reaction.

MEDICAL WONDER

The stooping, trembling victim of depression and debility becomes a new being; he stands erect, he moves with a firm step, his mind, which was previously sunk in gloom or an almost idiotic apathy, becomes bright and active; and he goes forth regenerated, conscious of new vigor. The medicine reaches the CONSTITUTION itself, and restores it to its normal condition.
